The technical paper event is worth 125 points and is a mandatory participation event. Teams write about what research their university is conducting currently. At the conference, on April 10th, teams will present their papers to a panel of judges. Presentations will be 5 minutes (+/- 5 seconds) with time for questions after. Schools are encouraged to have visual aides to convey their technical topic more clearly to the judges.