

Southwest Seminar in Early Modern Philosophy
University of California, San Diego
24-25 February 2007

All Seminar events will take place in the Philosophy Seminar Room
(Room 7077, Humanities and Social Sciences Building).

Saturday 24 February

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| 10-11:10am | “What the Problem of Other Minds Really Tells us about Descartes”
Gideon Manning , The College of William and Mary |
| 11:15am-12:25pm | “Reid's Answer to Molyneux's Question”
James Van Cleve , University of Southern California |
| 12:30-1:30pm | Lunch |
| 1:30-2:40pm | “Representation in Spinoza's Theory of the Imagination”
Michael LeBuffe , Texas A&M University |
| 2:45-3:55pm | “Malebranche on the Passions: Biology, Morality, and the Fall”
Sean Greenberg , Johns Hopkins University |
| 4-4:30pm | Coffee Break |
| 4:30-5:40pm | “Moral Phenomenology in Hume and Hutcheson”
Michael Gill , University of Arizona |
| 7-9:30pm | Conference Dinner
Location: TBA |

Sunday 25 February

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 9:30-10:40am | “Locke and Berkeley on Real Knowledge”
Margaret Atherton , University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee |
| 10:45-11:55am | “The Relation Between Anti-Abstractionism and Idealism in Berkeley's Metaphysics”
Samuel Rickless , University of California – San Diego |

For further information, including paper abstracts, please visit the Seminar web site:
<http://www.unm.edu/~mdomski/swseminar07.html>