

"I am from" Adapted by Beverly Tatum

I am from (familiar sights, sounds, and smells of my home or neighborhood) ...

I am from (familiar foods, especially those associated with family gatherings and special occasions) ...

I am from (familiar sayings heard repeatedly growing up) ...

I am from (familiar challenges and experiences that shape my identity) ...

I am from (familiar people, family, ancestors important from my past and in my present) ...

I am from a place that (what it represents) ...

I am from an experience that has (what have my experience has provided me) ...
