

Paper 1: Research Report on Chaucerian Historical/Cultural Background

Content: Write a 5-page report on the historical/cultural background of a subject related to Chaucer's poetry. As I have been trying to express in class, Chaucer's works were created in a historical and cultural context, and knowing about that context helps us understand Chaucer's poetry better. I have listed a number of topics below with their rough application to Chaucer's works. If you are interested in a historical/cultural topic not listed here, please run it by me.

Alchemy
Animal Symbolism
Appellants
Ars Praedicandi (Art of Preaching)
Arthurian/Vernacular Romance
Astrology/Astronomy
Black Death
Boccaccio
Chaucer as a Customs Officer
Chaucer's Audience
Chaucer's Education
Chaucer's London
Confession
East Anglian Wool Trade
Ecclesiastical Courts
Great Rising of 1381/Peasant Revolt
Hundred Years War, specifically the English involvement
John Gower
King Richard II
Knighthood and Chivalry in England
Legal Profession in England
Lollardy
Medieval Guild System
Medieval Marriage
Mediterranean Trade Routes
Mendicant Orders
Patronage in Chaucer's Time
Petrarch
Relationships of Christianity, Islam, Judaism
Secular Women's Piety
Seven Deadly Sins
Southeast English Legendary
Sumptuary Laws
Universities in England
Uses of the Old Testament in Chaucer
Uses of the New Testament in Chaucer

Format: I will NOT ACCEPT papers that do not follow the guidelines outlined in the online Guide to Style containing the format guidelines of the MLA, plus instructions on writing papers, sample introductory paragraphs with developed theses, frequent errors in critical writing, and a list of tools for the literature student. Review documentation procedures and follow the distinctions outlined for shorter and longer prose quotations. Persistent errors in format will result in lower grades.

Sources: You should consult between 3-5 scholarly sources to write your report. Only ONE of those sources should be an online source, such as a respectable website. In case of doubt, run the source by me first. Full-text databases are NOT considered online sources, as they usually only make regular scholarly journal articles available online. You should consult scholarly books and journals. Start with the International MLA Bibliography (NOT the Index of Periodicals) in and/or the International Medieval Bibliography in the UNM database system. Links to those and others are on the class website. After you identify potential books and articles in these databases, you need to check if they might be available through one of the online full-text resources or in the stacks in the form of essay collections. If not, you can order them through Interlibrary Loan (ILL): <http://illiad.unm.edu/illiad/logon.html>. Articles come through in a few days as pdf files, but you clearly must plan ahead. You should also search Libros for books on your topic, and you might try WorldCat in the database section. It lists all books published, while Libros only contains what UNM has.

This paper is designed to hone your research skills in this subject area before you approach the final paper. You may work in pairs or alone.

Structure: Title your report; the title can be more specific and/or applied to a particular work. The bulk of the paper consists of your summarizing and commenting on what you have learned from your sources; you don't have to tie it to Chaucer's poetry at this point. Reflect briefly on how you might pursue this line of research further. Since you will be reporting on what you find in your sources, you need to be extra careful about proper attribution. See Guide to Style on Plagiarism #102-107. Attach a Works Cited page.

I would like to reiterate that you are writing a formal paper, both in content and in style. I encourage you to edit, revise, and proofread your papers, striving for coherence, grammatical correctness, and good transitions.

Note: The following sections in the Guide to Style might be especially helpful for this assignment: 1-10, 28-30, 32, 42-50, 53-62, 72-76, 81-83.
