PART 1: CORE CURRICULUM AND GROUP REQUIREMENTS

The Core Curriculum applies to all bachelor degree students – freshman, transfer, or re-entering – entering the University of New Mexico in Fall 1999 or later. It does not apply to second-degree-seeking students. Students must complete all Core Curriculum Requirements (the left side of the sheet), elimination of an entire area or change in the number of hours within an area is not allowed. A “C” (not C-) is required for all core courses. Credit (CR) is acceptable. Once the core requirements are met, students must take additional hours to satisfy A&S general education requirements, students are allowed to omit 1 of the 7 groups for A&S (only from the right side of the sheet).

Students with transfer credits, CLEP, or AP should meet with an A & S Advisor to discuss core and groups. Students interested in applying courses in African American Studies, American Studies, Chicano Studies, Native American Studies University Honors and Women Studies to A & S groups should also talk to their A & S Advisor.
