

Center for the Southwest

Lecture 2 in the 2009 Borderlands Lecture Series

This series of four lectures presents scholarship on the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands region by scholars working in both Mexico and the United States.

The second lecture will be delivered by Mexican scholar Dana Alexandra Levin Rojo, of the Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana. Her lecture is titled, “Land Struggle and Community Organization in Northern New Mexico After Reyes Lopez Tijerina”

The lecture will be held Thursday, March 5, 2009, in the UNM Student Union Building, Santa Ana A and B, at 3:00 p.m.

For more information on the 2009 Borderlands Lecture Series, or other events sponsored by the Center for the Southwest, contact us at 277-7688, or email: cntrsw@unm.edu