

College of Education

Athletic Training Education, B.S.

Broad Learning Goals

- A. Prepare Health Care Professionals who are competent in Immediate Care, Clinical Evaluation and Diagnosis.
- B. Prepare Health Care Professionals who are able to prevent injury/illness, and treat, rehabilitate, and recondition an injured/ill patient/athlete.
- C. Prepare Health Care Professionals who understand Athletic Training Organization, Administration, and Professional Responsibilities.
- D. Prepare Health Care Professionals who have the ability to conduct and apply original research to major issues in the field of athletic training.
- E. Prepare Health Care Professionals who have critical thinking and problem solving skills.

Student Learning Outcomes

- A1. The Athletic Training Student will be able to recognize emergency situations/conditions and provide appropriate care.
- A2. The Athletic Training Student will be able to perform a full evaluation and give a diagnosis for athletic injuries.
- B1. The Athletic Training Student will be able to fit appropriate equipment/braces and apply prophylactic tapings.
- B2. The Athletic Training Student will be able to select appropriate therapeutic modalities to affect and treat athletic injuries.
- B3. The Athletic Training Student will be able to create rehabilitation/reconditioning plan(s) for the injured patient/athlete.

- C1. The Athletic Training Student will be able to document injuries/illnesses, treatments and rehabilitations for patient/athlete.
- C2. The Athletic Training Student will be able to create and implement an Emergency Action Plan.
- D1. The Athletic Training Student will be able to complete a literature review.
- D2. The Athletic Training Student will be able to present a research topic to peers and other professionals.
- E1. The Athletic Training Student will be able to differentiate between musculoskeletal injuries/conditions.
- E2. The Athletic Training Student will be able to design and implement medical personnel coverage protocols for athletic events.