

College of Education Educational Leadership, Ed.D.

Broad Learning Goals

- A. The program seeks to prepare leaders who have the ability to conduct and apply original research to major issues in the field of education.

Student Learning Outcomes

- A1. Develop course work assignments that: demonstrate transformational leadership and combine theory and practice
- A2. Design and carry out a doctoral level research studying which...
 - a. Students will demonstrate the ability to complete a literature review
 - b. Students will demonstrate the ability to craft a research question and design an appropriate study to address the question.
 - c. Students will demonstrate the ability to collect, synthesize and analyze data as it applies to their research question.