

College of Education Family Studies, M.A.

Broad Learning Goals

- A. To prepare family studies professionals who have the understanding of human development and family interaction theories and the ability to apply these theories in working with diverse families.

Student Learning Outcomes

- A1. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the family studies content areas.
- A2. Students will demonstrate ability to compare different family studies theories.
- A3. Students will demonstrate professional competence in working with diverse families.
- A4. Students will demonstrate the ability to seek out and critique appropriate information sources, and show understanding and an ability to apply them to relevant family issues.
- A5. Students will demonstrate the ability to show research skills including research design and methodology, data analysis, and data interpretation.