

College of Education Physical Education, B.S.Ed.

---

Broad Learning Goals

- A. The physical education teacher candidate plans and implements a variety of developmentally appropriate instructional strategies.
- B. The physical education teacher candidate uses various forms of authentic and formal assessment to guide instruction, provide feedback to students, and evaluate teaching.

Student Learning Outcomes

- A1. The physical education teacher candidate will be able to select and implement appropriate instructional strategies based on developmental levels, learning styles and safety issues for diverse learners.
- B1. The physical education teacher candidate will be able to select and use developmentally appropriate assessment strategies aligned with lesson objectives and the state content standards with benchmarks.