

Gallup Branch Campus Nursing, Associate of Science

Broad Learning Goals

A student graduating from the UNM-Gallup Nursing Program will:

- A. Provide culturally appropriate care in a variety of settings to a diverse population.
- B. Use nursing process/critical thinking as a framework to provide safe and effective care for the client, family and community.
- C. Demonstrate therapeutic and effective communication skills in the provision of client care.
- D. Display professional behaviors appropriate for the role of associate degree nurse including a commitment for lifelong learning.
- E. Pass the NCLEX examination to obtain licensure as a registered nurse.

Student Learning Outcomes

- A.1. Provide nursing care appropriate for the population served.
- A. 2. Integrate cultural beliefs, practices, and spirituality into the plan of care for the client and family.
- B.1. Utilize nursing process to prioritize client care
- B.2. Apply critical thinking skills to the provision of nursing care
- C.1. Identify and demonstrate the various communication modalities.
- C.2. Utilize effective communication to deliver client care.
- D.1. Demonstrate behaviors associated with a professional nurse including legal and ethical responsibilities.
- E.1. Pass the RN Predictor exam indicating readiness for the NCLEX exam.