

Sociology 101

Students will be able to define social structure (i.e., social organization) and explain some important elements of social structure, including status, role, class, power, ethnicity, race, gender, and social stratification.

(Relates to UNM/HED Area IV, Competency 1)

Students will be able to define culture and explain some important elements of culture, including beliefs, values, norms, and language.

(Relates to UNM/HED Area IV, Competency 2)

Students will be able to explain the socialization process and how it operates through at least three major agents of socialization (e.g., the family, education, peer groups, and the media).

(Relates to UNM/HED Area IV, Competency 3)