

Best Student Essays Nomination Form

University of New Mexico Student Publications Board.

Return submission, disk, and completed form to
Best Student Essays, Marron Hall Room 107.

Deadline for publication in the Spring 2010 issue: March 12

Each submission must receive a faculty member's nomination. (Please see faculty sponsor section below.) Submissions are accepted all year.

Author Information (please print)

Essay Title: _____

Author's Name: _____

Author's Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Major: _____

Email: _____

Course Number, Title, Semester _____

(Example: ANTH 357, Human Origins, Sp '07)

Current Status (circle one) Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior Grad Student

Software Used: _____

Please submit both a hard copy of the essay and a CD or DVD.

Limit per submission: 12 double-spaced pages.

Photographs must be submitted in digital media formats (minimum 300 pixels per inch).

*All foreign language essays must include a complete English translation.

Essay plus translation may not exceed 12 double-spaced pages.

STUDENT: I grant the University of New Mexico Student Publications Board permission to publish my essay if accepted for BEST STUDENT ESSAYS, extending them permission to arrange reprinting in any other publication. I give permission for my essay to be edited for spelling, punctuation, usage, and grammatical accuracy. I understand that portions may be edited to accommodate space limitations.

Author's signature _____ Date _____

Faculty Sponsor Information (please print)

Sponsor's Name: _____

Department, Campus Address, Phone: _____

_____ Email _____

SPONSOR: Please note this work's scholastic merit, its analysis, presentation of topic, and/or any other traits that make this excellent student work. (Remarks regarding foreign language submissions must be in English.) These remarks may be published.

Sponsor's signature _____
