Other information:

Please provide any additional information that you would like the faculty to consider when making their scholarship decisions. Things such as university or community activities, awards, hardships you have overcome, internships you have completed would be appropriate to include.

Financial Need:

- 1. I may not be able to continue in school if I do not receive a scholarship.
- 2. I work during the year to help pay for school and living expenses. These proceeds pay for more than 50% of my expenses.
- 3. I work during the year to help pay for school and living expenses. These proceeds pay for less than 50% of my expenses.
- 4. I do not have to work during the school year; the majority of my schooling and living expenses are paid through other sources.

Future Goals:

On an attached piece of paper please provide a 500-word essay detailing your future career goals and how your degree in Communication or Journalism will assist you in meeting those goals. (Note: we have several scholarships that are targeted specifically for students who participate in certain activities or are working toward careers in specific areas. The specific activities include involvement in some capacity with the Daily Lobo or debate. Special career interests include radio broadcasting, public relations, photojournalism, political science, foreign service or diplomatic work, international relations, and teaching. If you have participated in any of these activities or if your career goals fall into these fields, please clearly indicate this in the essay and describe your past involvement or experience in terms of course work, internships, work experience in these activities.)
