

Curriculum Vitae (2001-2006)

Claudia Benoit Isaac, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Community and Regional Planning
School of Architecture and Planning
University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131
(505) 277-5939 Fax 505-277-0076
Email: cisaac@unm.edu

EDUCATION

Graduate School of Architecture and Urban Planning

University of California, Los Angeles, Los Angeles, California
Ph.D. in Planning, 1993 Major Field: Urban and Regional Development. Minor Field: Political Economy and Critical Studies

Woodrow Wilson School Of Public and International Affairs

Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey
M.P.A.1U.R.P (Public and International Affairs and Urban and Regional Planning), June, 1981.
Major Field: Development Studies

Bryn Mawr College

Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania
B. A., May 1975. Major Field: Psychology

PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

January 1988 to Present: Community and Regional Planning Program, School of Architecture and Planning

REGENT'S LECTURER (9105 - 6108)
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR (7195 to present)
DIRECTOR (1197 to 7100)
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR (1188 to 6195)

Graduate Courses: Theory and Process, Qualitative Methods in Planning, Latin American Development Planning, Gender and Economic Development, International Field Studio, Advanced Planning Studio, Planning Communications Studio, and Cultural Aspects of Planning. Undergraduate teaching: Introduction to Community and Regional Planning. Short Courses in Spanish on Teoria De Planeacion Y Manejo ComlInltarla Del Ambiente. Coordinator for dual masters' degree in Community & Regional Planning and Latin American Studies. Awarded research grant from UNM Center for Regional Studies for spring 2001. Honored for "Excellence at UNM" in Spring 2001 and Spring 1989. One of 2 nominated from UNM to submit NEH Summer Sabbatical application, September 2000. Received YWCA "Women on the Move" award for Education, Training and Development in March 2000. Honored in 1997 by the UNM Women's Resource Center and the Women Studies Program for service to women on International Women's Day. Received a UNM General Library Outstanding Faculty Award in 1994. Women's Studies Research Scholar, Spring, 1990. Nominated 1990 for Outstanding Teacher of the Year.

Sabbatical leave January – December 2001.

January 2002 to December 2004: Director Latin American Studies Program, College of Arts and Sciences, University of New Mexico
Director of BA, MA and Ph.D. programs in Latin American Studies. Chair of Interdisciplinary. Committee on Latin American Studies. Department of Education Foreign Language Area Studies Coordinator.

ACADEMIC COMMITTEES AND SERVICE

National

Editorial Board Member, Journal of Planning Education and Research February 2003 to present
Member, ACSP Diversity Committee, February 2000 to 2004
Social Science Panel Member, Ford Foundation Minority Fellowship Programs Review Panel Meeting, 2004 & 2005
Member, ACSP Ritzdorf Award Committee, November 1998 to 2001
Member, ACSP Rapkin Award Committee, November 1998 to 2001, Chair, 2001

The University Of New Mexico

Faculty Senate Graduate Committee (SGC) (8/03 to present)
Chair Faculty Senate Honorary Degree Sub-Committee (9/03 to present)
UNM Graduate Advisory Council (9/05 to present)
Latin American and Iberian institute Executive Committee (11/02 to present, Vice President from 8/05)
Interdisciplinary Committee on Latin American Studies (90-91, 96-97, and 1/05 to present)
Search Committee for the Student Advisement Coordinator of the Latin American Studies Program (1105 - 6/05)
Latin American and Iberian Institute Grants and Awards Committee (8/02 to 6/05)
Search Committee for Director of African American Studies (8/04 – 3/05)
Search Committee for Director of the Latin American and Iberian Instituted (2103 to 4/04)
Graduate Review Site Team, American Studies Department (spring 2003)
UNM Strategic Planning Task Force (summer/fall 2000)

The Community and Regional Planning Program

Member, CRP Personnel Committee (9/02 to present)
Academic Coordinator for MCRP/MALAS Dual Degree Program (8/89 to present)
Chair, CRP Curriculum Committee (1102 to 6/04)
Chair, CRP Tenure and Promotion Committee (8/02-6/03)

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS

Fair Lending Roundtable (Advisory Board Member, June 2002 to present)
Downtown Albuquerque Civic Trust (Board Member, August 2003 to October 2005)
Albuquerque Border Cities Project (Chair, 1998 to October 2001, member 1996 - 2001)

OTHER AFFILIATIONS

American Planning Association
Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning
Planners Network
Latin American Studies Association