E. References List persons who have agreed to submit a letter on your behalf. Letters from three people must be on file and correctly and completely filled out for application to be considered complete. Although we provide forms for the referee to complete, many referees prefer to write letters on their own stationary. This is fine, but they still complete the numerical ratings on our reference form. It is helpful to have references attesting to your academic potential and to your potential as a professional counselor. Professors and/or work supervisors references are preferred.
