

UNM'S PRIORITY DATE FOR FILING YOUR FAFSA IS MARCH 1

APPLYING FOR FINANCIAL AID 2009–2010

UNM's Federal School Code is 002663

Financial aid awards are not renewed automatically. You MUST apply for financial aid each year. To apply for financial aid for Fall 2009, Spring 2010, and Summer 2010, complete your FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov> as soon after December 31, 2008 as possible.

UNM'S PRIORITY DATE FOR FILING YOUR FAFSA IS MARCH 1

The FAFSA is used to apply for all types of federal and state need-based aid, including: grants, loans, and work-study.

Your application for financial aid must be received by the US Department of Education's central processing system by March 1, 2009, for you to receive priority consideration for limited grants: Supplemental (FSEOG), State (SSIG), UNM 3%, UNM II, and College Affordability Grant, as well as Federal and State Work-Study, and Perkins Loans.

Once students who have met the March 1 priority date are awarded, we will continue to award the above types of financial aid as long as funding permits.

We encourage you to complete the FAFSA on the Web Worksheet before starting on the FAFSA on the Web. The questions on the Worksheet follow the order of the questions on FAFSA on the Web. The Worksheet is available at: <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>

Pay special attention to the following questions on the FAFSA . Correcting errors on your FAFSA can delay awarding of your financial aid by several weeks.

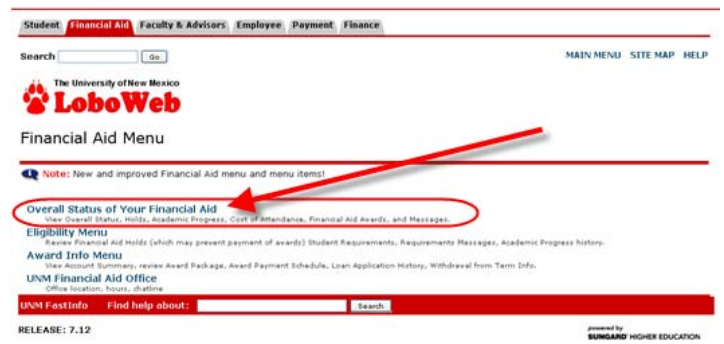

1. Social Security Numbers
2. Divorced/remarried parental information
3. Income earned by parents/stepparents
4. Untaxed income
5. US income taxes paid
6. Household size
7. Number of household members in college
8. Missing school code
9. Missing student or parent signature

UNM'S PRIORITY DATE FOR FILING YOUR FAFSA IS MARCH 1

You will need a PIN to sign your FAFSA electronically. If you are providing parents' information, your parent will need his or her own PIN to sign the FAFSA. If you and/or your parent do not have a PIN, or if you have forgotten your PIN, you may request a PIN at: <http://www.pin.ed.gov>.

The PIN may be used by you and/or your parent throughout the aid process, including subsequent school years.

Keep a copy of your FAFSA application and all documents you submit to UNM. It is important that you keep a copy of the 2009–2010 FAFSA on the Web Worksheet. DO NOT MAIL THE WORKSHEET.

Please check your Financial Aid status on LoboWeb 3–5 business days after submitting your FAFSA. Respond immediately to document requests from UNM's Student Financial Aid Office. Include your name, UNM ID no., and email address on all documents you submit to our office.

The Student Aid Report (SAR)

The Central Processor will notify you of your FAFSA processing results by email notification containing a direct link to your on-line Student Aid Report (SAR), if you provided your email address on your FAFSA on the Web.

In addition, you can view your SAR on-line at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov> using your PIN.

The SAR contains the answers you submitted on your FAFSA on the Web, and allows you the chance to update or correct information on your FAFSA. You should keep your SAR for your records.

For 2009–10, the SAR is green.

We strongly recommend that you complete your federal income tax returns before filling out the FAFSA. If you are not able to complete your tax returns in time to meet UNM's March 1 priority date, you may provide estimated tax information. However, you must correct the estimated tax information you provided as soon as your tax returns are complete.

Examples are: tuition remission, scholarships, Americorps grants, Veteran's Benefits etc. These types of assistance affect your eligibility for financial aid. Unreported assistance could result in an overaward of financial aid, which you will be required to repay immediately! Don't put yourself in this predicament.
