

GPSA Equity and Inclusion Ad-hoc Committee

Final Report 2008-2009

Chair: Jordon Johnson, American Studies – jordon@unm.edu

This Ad-Hoc Committee conducted the following workshops or events:

- Showing of Unnatural Causes with facilitated discussion – 7 part series
- Transgender Day of Remembrance – workshop and talk
- Collaborated on Bringing Patricia Hill Collins
- Began a “Privilege from Your Own Lens” dialogue series to prepare for the White Privilege Conference in Albuquerque in 2012
- Worked on getting Gender Neutral Bathrooms on campus wide map
- Collaborated with community event – White History Week. We sponsored this event and helped promote it throughout the university.
- Collaborated with community members - Advocates for Equity who are working to have a Anti-Racism Training for Albuquerque Public School Board Members, other administrative staff or teachers, and community members. We are working on this currently and have become a partner in this effort. This is an excellent demonstration of working with the city, superintendents, UNM graduate students, and community members.
- Hosted a GPSA Equity and Inclusion graduate appreciation hour.
- Began working on having a LGBTQ Center on UNM campus.
- The committee had worked on a Racial Justice Resolution
