

Personal Statement

Write an informal letter to me in which you introduce yourself as a writer. Here are some suggestions: Tell me a little about your background in writing, including what kinds of things you like to read and write. Tell me what you think I might want to know about your strengths, weaknesses, likes, dislikes, and so forth. Let me know what you hope to get out of this class, what you're looking forward to, what you're dreading. Feel free to write about whatever you think is relevant.
