

Family of William F. Ruark

Evidence gathered by
William M Litchman¹

Introduction

This research report concerns the ancestry of Barbara Campbell Ruark (1929-2001) who married Norman Archer Litchman (1923-1981). After having two children, they divorced. The research is not complete but the report has enough information to be helpful in building the family tree further. There are three parts: 1) the Ruark family beginning with the great-grandparents of Barbara, 2) the Philip Bence family and 3) the John S. Donham family. The Bence and Donham family lines intersect with the Ruark family line. Each direct line is expanded through peripheral lines as far as is practical. Note for future research: There are many daughters in these families for whom no husband has yet been found. Some will not have married, of course, but most will. There is much future work yet to do.

First Generation

1. William F. Ruark was born c1812,² Ohio.³ He died between 1850 and 1860, Illinois. William married Phoebe F. Ruark, 6 May 1834, Lawrence, Illinois.⁴ Phoebe was born c1814, Ohio. They had the following known children:⁵

Family of Philip Bence

First Generation

26. Philip Bence was born 10 Oct 1801, Kentucky and died 18 Nov 1883, Putnam, Indiana.⁵³ Philip married (1) Lydia Doup, c 1827, Kentucky.⁵⁴ It is proposed that Philip and Lydia probably had the following children:⁵⁵

- + 27 M i. Fountain R. Bence was born c1828, Jefferson, Kentucky.
- + 28 M ii. Onesimus Oliver Bence was born 28 Oct 1828, Jefferson, Kentucky.
- + 29 M iii. Charles J. Bence was born c1832, Jefferson, Kentucky.
- + 30 M iv. Jeptha D. Bence was born c1833, Jefferson, Kentucky.
- + 31 F v. Elizabeth Bence was born c1833, Jefferson, Kentucky.

Philip married (2) Anna (---) c1835, Jefferson, Kentucky. Anna was born c1813, Kentucky.⁵⁶ They possibly had several children:

- + 32 M vi. John A. Bence was born 29 Oct 1836, Louisville, Jefferson, Kentucky.
- + 33 F vii. Lydia R. Bence was born c1838, Louisville.
- + 34 F viii. Louisa J. Bence was born 12 Apr 1840, Louisville.
- + 35 F ix. Genevra Bence was born c1843, Louisville.
- + 36 F x. Mary Matilda Bence was born c1844, Louisville.
- + 37 M xi. George W. Bence was born c1847, Louisville. George married (1) Kizzie C. Pratt 13 Nov 1873, Putnam, Indiana.⁵⁷ Kizzie was born 2 Oct 1855, Clay, Indiana, and died 5 Dec 1873, Putnam, Indiana.⁵⁸ George married (2) Sibbie Loftus 25 Dec 1876, Putnam, Indiana.⁵⁹ Sibbie was born c1853, Indiana, and died 12 Nov 1881, Putnam, Indiana.⁶⁰ George and Sibbie had a daughter, Susie, born 20 Sep 1879, Putnam, Indiana, and died 2 Mar 1886, Putnam, Indiana.⁶¹ George married (3) Armenia Brandon 16 Jan 1884, Putnam, Indiana.⁶²

53 Philip Bence household, 1830 federal census, M19, Roll 38, Family History Library Film 0,007,817, p 136, line 25, Jefferson Kentucky. Philip Bence household, 1840 federal census, M407, Roll 115, Family History Library Film 0,007,828, p 164, line 27, Jefferson, Kentucky. <http://www.findagrave.com/> shows: Phillip Bence, b 10 Oct 1801, Jefferson, Kentucky, d 18 Nov 1883, Burial: Boone-Hutcheson Cemetery, Reelsville, Putnam, Indiana.

54 Marriage year and place are a guess based on birth of first child and probable residence. Similar guesses throughout this work where a firm marriage date is not found. The name of Philip's first wife is given in the burial information for Onesimus Bence.

55 Philip Bence household, 1850 federal census, M432, Roll 205, p 300B, lines 20-32, Dist 2, Jefferson, Kentucky, enumerated 27 Oct 1850 by E Garland: dwelling 1116, family 1117.

56 The second marriage is postulated to have taken place between 1833 and 1837 since there is a natural, lengthy, break in the birth years for the children at that time.

- 91 <http://www.findagrave.com/> shows: Philip Hutcheson, b 27 Oct 1830, Putnam, Indiana, d 12 Mar 1911, Putnam, Indiana. Phillip married Louisa Bence on 25 June 1857 at Greencastle, Putnam Co., Indiana. The Weik's History of Putnam Co. had the following to say about Phillip in 1910: "Philip Hutcheson was born in Madison Township, Putnam Co. Oct. 27, 1830, and has lived on the farm which he now owns since he was four years old, now being eighty years of age, being the "grand old man" of Washington Township. The surrounding country was all in woods in those days and he did not have much time to pour over text-books, for it fell to his lot to assist in clearing and developing the farm, and he took care of his parents in their old age, his father, Randolph Hutcheson, surviving until 1864. He farmed all his life, held no public office, but was a member of the Christian church at Manhattan. Their family consisted of twelve children, all reaching maturity but one, only three of whom are now living, two sisters in Missouri and Philip, the only one of the children left in Putnam County. The latter has always been a farmer and he built his present home in 1887. The old homestead contained eighty acres; this Philip has added to until he now has one hundred acres in this place and other lands, all making several hundred acres. Philip has never been an aspirant for public honors; however, he at one time served as supervisor of his township. He is a Democrat and a member of the Christian church, having been a leader in the building of the Antioch church, which is near his farm, and he is one of its main supporters, his home being the frequent gathering place for the ministers who preach here. He is a quiet home man, devoted to plain, simple virtues, highly honored by all. He has taken a great deal of pains in educating his children. Now in his advanced age he is hale and hearty owing to his past life of clean wholesome living." Parents: Randolph Hall Hutcheson (1785 – 1865) and Mary Elizabeth Warner Hutcheson (1790 – 1864), spouse: Louisa J. Bence Hutcheson (1840 – 1914), children: George A. 139 <http://www.ancestry.com/> gives two obituaries in the Rockport, Indiana, newspapers. The first is: "OBITUARY. Oct. 19, 1956, Rockport (Ind.) Journal: IRVIN G. DAWSON. 'I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day.' Irvin G. Dawson, oldest son of Albert G. and Vesta Ann Dawson, was born in Spencer county, Ind., Nov. 30, 1880, and departed this life Oct. 13, 1956, aged 75 years, 10 months and 13 days. Born and reared in a Christian home, it was only natural that Irvin should give his life to Christ at an early age. He was converted when he was 14 years of age and joined the Fairview U.B. church. To this church he has been a faithful worker his entire lifetime, having served as Sunday School teacher, supt. of the Sunday School, class leader and church trustee. He loved the House of the Lord and like David could say: 'I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.' Irvin's good life stands as a living monument of his noble work here on earth. His neighbors knew him as an honest and true friend. To his family he was kind and loving. And to his Master he was faithful and true to the end. Having no children of his own, Irvin's home was open to a number of children who were reared under the influence of his loving Christian character. Among these was his nephew, Elmer J. Hall, on whom his love and devotion was shed as if he were his own son, and Mrs. Emma Hoene, who lived in the home and was loved as an own daughter. For the past twenty years, his home was open to his wife's mother, Aunt Eva Hall, whom Irvin loved and cared for with a tenderness and devotion as only a true mother might share. To mourn his passing are: His wife, Winnie; one sister, Mrs. Ollie Wilder, of Evansville; three half-sisters, Mrs. Etta Wolfe, Mrs. Anna Williams and Mrs. Ruby Myers, all of Evansville; and a host of other relatives and friends. 'And the Lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler of many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.'" A second obituary is also given: Oct. 19, 1956, Rockport Weekly Democrat. "IRVIN G. DAWSON. Irvin G. Dawson, 75, prominent Hammond township farmer, died suddenly Saturday afternoon while at work at his home near Grandview. Survivors include his wife, Winnie; a nephew, Elmer J. Hall, who had been reared by the Dawsons; a sister, Mrs. Olive Wilder, Evansville; three half sisters, Mrs. Etta Wolf and Mrs. Ruby Meyer, both of Evansville and Mrs. Anna Bell, Lansing, Mich. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Fairview United Brethren church with the Rev. James Wolf officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. <http://www.findagrave.com/> shows: Irvin G Dawson, b Nov. 30, 1880, Spencer, Indiana, d 13 Oct 1956. Married to Winnie. The Weik's History of Putnam Co. had the following to say about Phillip in 1910: "Phillip Hutcheson was born in Madison Township, Putnam Co. Oct. 27, 1830, and has lived on the farm which he now owns since he was four years old, now being eighty years of age, being the "grand old man" of Washington Township. The surrounding country was all in woods in those days and he did not have much time to pour over text-books, for it fell to his lot to assist in clearing and developing the farm, and he took care of his parents in their old age, his father, Randolph Hutcheson, surviving until 1864. He farmed all his life, held no public office, but was a member of the Christian church at Manhattan. Their family consisted of twelve children, all reaching maturity but one, only three of whom are now living, two sisters in Missouri and Philip, the only one of the children left in Putnam County. The latter has always been a farmer and he built his present home in 1887. The old homestead contained eighty acres; this Philip has added to until he now has one hundred acres in this place and other lands, all making several hundred acres. Philip has never been an aspirant for public honors; however, he at one time served as supervisor of his township. He is a Democrat and a member of the Christian church, having been a leader in the building of the Antioch church, which is near his farm, and he is one of its main supporters, his home being the frequent gathering place for the ministers who preach here. He is a quiet home man, devoted to plain, simple virtues, highly honored by all. He has taken a great deal of pains in educating his children. Now in his advanced age he is hale and hearty owing to his past life of clean wholesome living." From <http://www.ancestry.com/> obituary for Irvin Garfield Dawson:

OBITUARY

Oct. 19, 1956, Rockport (Ind.) Journal:

IRVIN G. DAWSON

"I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day."

Irvin G. Dawson, oldest son of Albert G. and Vesta Ann Dawson, was born in Spencer county, Ind., Nov. 30, 1880, and departed this life Oct. 13, 1956, aged 75 years, 10 months and 13 days.

Born and reared in a Christian home, it was only natural that Irvin should give his life to Christ at an early age. He was converted when he was 14 years of age and joined the Fairview U.B. church. To this church he has been a faithful worker his entire lifetime, having served as Sunday School teacher, supt. of the Sunday School, class leader and church trustee. He loved the House of the Lord and like David could say: "I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord."

Irvin's good life stands as a living monument of his noble work here on earth. His neighbors knew him as an honest and true friend. To his family he was kind and loving. And to his Master he was faithful and true to the end.

Having no children of his own, Irvin's home was open to a number of children who were reared under the influence of his loving Christian character. Among these was his nephew, Elmer J. Hall, on whom his love and devotion was shed as if he were his own son, and Mrs. Emma Hoene, who lived in the home and was loved as an own daughter.

For the past twenty years, his home was open to his wife's mother, Aunt Eva Hall, whom Irvin loved and cared for with a tenderness and devotion as only a true mother might share.

To mourn his passing are: His wife, Winnie; one sister, Mrs. Ollie Wilder, of Evansville; three half-sisters, Mrs. Etta Wolfe, Mrs.

Anna Williams and Mrs. Ruby Myers, all of Evansville; and a host of other relatives and friends.

"And the Lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler of many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Oct. 19, 1956, Rockport Weekly Democrat

IRVIN G. DAWSON

Irvin G. Dawson, 75, prominent Hammond township farmer, died suddenly Saturday afternoon while at work at his home near Grandview.

Survivors include his wife, Winnie; a nephew, Elmer J. Hall, who had been reared by the Dawsons; a sister, Mrs. Olive Wilder, Evansville; three half sisters, Mrs. Etta Wolf and Mrs. Ruby Meyer, both of Evansville and Mrs. Anna Bell, Lansing, Mich.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Fairview United Brethren church with the Rev. James Wolf officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery

Rockport Journal, June 2, 1944:

Albert G. Dawson

Albert G. Dawson, son of Albert G. and Cynthia Ann Dawson, was born near Grandview July 30, 1858, and departed this life May 27, 1944, aged 85 years, 9 months and 27 days. Born the second child of a large family of 13, there are only three survivors: Mrs. Lawrence Jeffrey of Princeton, Mrs. J.C. Jeffrey of Grandview, and Frank Dawson of Tacoma, Wash.

On Feb. 22, 1880, he was married to Vesta A. Thrasher, to which union were born three children: Mrs. Olive I. Wilder of Evansville, Irvin G. Dawson of Grandview and Lawrence Dawson, who departed this life May 25, 1885.

On April 6, 1887, he was united in marriage to Ermina Loney, and to them were born seven children, only four of whom survive: Mrs. John Bell of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Gottlieb Wolf, Mrs. James Myers and Russell Dawson of Evansville.

In addition there are fifteen grand children and twenty great-grandchildren who mourn his passing.

At a very early age he was converted and joined the Fairview U.B. church and to this church he remained a faithful and loyal member for many years. Moving to Grandview a few years ago, he transferred his membership to the Grandview M.E. church.

After receiving his common school education in the local schools, he entered Hartsville college. On completing his college work he began a teaching career in the schools of Spencer county that covered a period of 26 years. No doubt many in this audience were at one time his pupils and will long remember the good advice and the splendid counsel he gave them. Even the widow was at one time a student in his classroom.

Active in the civic and fraternal duties of his community, he served for four years as trustee of Hammond township. As a great lover of music, he will be long be (sic) remember[ed] as a singing teacher in the local community, and active in all work of this type. None who heard it will ever forget his singing at the Fairview home coming each year when he and his wife sang the song they loved so well, "Never Grow Old."

His entire life work was accomplished in Hammond township with the exception of about fourteen years in which he lived in Evansville.

He was helpful and cooperative with his neighbors; to his family he was loving and devoted; and to his Maker he was faithful and obedient. Truly a good man has gone to his reward.

Outline of a life:

Albert Gilmore Dawson Jr.

Spencer, Indiana, USA

Albert Jr. attended school in Spencer County and then went to Hartsville College. He taught in Spencer County schools for 26 years.

At an early age, Albert had converted to the Fairview U.B. church and was a member for many years. He later moved to Grandview and joined the Grandview M.E. church.

He was married twice, first to Vesta Ann Thrasher on Feb. 21, 1880. Albert and Vesta had at least three children -- Irvin G. (Nov. 30, 1880), Lawrence C. (Feb. 20, 1882) and Olive J. (April 24, 1884).

Vesta died May 25, 1885, and within two years, Albert found a new mother for his children, marrying Ermina J. Loney on April 6, 1887, despite the objections of her mother. Mina had been a student of Albert's and was 11 years younger than him.

Albert and Mina had seven children -- Mary Etta (July 8, 1888), Christopher A. (May 3, 1891), Frank Herbert (Jan. 21, 1893), Lyman L. (Nov. 24, 1894), Anna F. (March 4, 1897), Ida Ruby (Feb. 1899) and Russell (1902).

Although at some point he lived about 14 years in Evansville, Ind., throughout most of his life Albert was an active member of the Spencer County community, serving four years as trustee of Hammond Township. A lover of music, he often taught singing. He and Mina sang "Never Grow Old" at the Fairview homecoming each year. He died May 27, 1944, at age 85 and was buried at Grandview Cemetery.

Charles Ludwig, 88 passed away August 14

By Kim · August 16, 2011

Charles E. Ludwig, 88, Santa Claus, died Sunday, Aug. 14, 2011, at St. Mary's Medical Center in Evansville. He was born Sept. 8, 1922, on the family farm south of Dale to Louis and Gertrude (Donham) Ludwig, the youngest of four children. He graduated from Dale High School and enlisted in the Army during World War II. He was trained as a pilot in the Army Air Corps, flying B-24 Liberators all over the United States. He was a second lieutenant when the war ended. He married Iris Bolton on April 12, 1947, and lived on the farm where he was born until spring 1997. They have resided in Christmas Lake Village for the last 14 years. He farmed and always had a job away from home. He operated a garage in Dale with his brother-in-law in the late 1940s and early 1950s. Later, he worked for Brown Brothers Lumber Company in Dale, Enterprise Lumber Company in Huntingburg as a cabinetmaker and finish carpenter, and retired from Thermwood in Dale as a plant maintenance man in 1985. He enjoyed farm life, working on the tractors, woodworking and restoring antiques. He was also an avid reader. His greatest joy was spending time with his family. He volunteered with Habitat For Humanity and went with other United Methodists on mission trips rebuilding homes after natural disasters. He also volunteered at the Santa Claus United Methodist Campground with other retirees doing repairs and maintenance. He was faithful to his Lord and church. He was preceded in death by his parents, and three sisters, Ruth Taylor, Lolomi Lindauer and Esther (in infancy). Survivors include his wife of 64 years; two daughters, Carol Edwards and husband, Rex, of Brown County, and Barbara Finecy and husband, Dean, of Santa Claus; son, Paul Ludwig and wife, Linda, of Indianapolis; eight grandchildren, Christy, Carolyn and Charlie

Finecy, all of Santa Claus, Kasey Edwards and wife, Leslie, of Clarksville, Kari [Edwards?] Leslie of Louisville, Ky., and Jacob, Cole and Connor Ludwig of Indianapolis; two great-grandchildren, Hunter and Blake Leslie of Louisville, Ky.; brother-in-law, Hubert Lindauer of Dale; and three nieces, Evelyn Adams and husband, David, of Tobinsport, Elizabeth Lockridge of Evansville, and Mary Begle and husband, Dennis, of Dale. Visitation will be Tuesday, Aug. 16, from 4-8 p.m. and Wednesday from 10 a.m. until the time of the service at 11 a.m. at Santa Claus United Methodist Church. Funeral services will be Wednesday, Aug. 17, at 11 a.m. at Santa Claus United Methodist Church, with burial in the church cemetery. The Rev. Joe Kamman will officiate. In lieu of flowers, friends can make memorial contributions to the Santa Claus United Methodist Campground Association. Fuller Funeral Home of Dale handled the arrangements.

[This Is Brown County is an online, photography-based, news magazine about life in Brown County, Indiana. It is locally owned, locally operated and locally empowered, the creation of award-winning journalists Linda and Rodney Margison, formerly of the Brown County Democrat newspaper.

After much soul-searching with regard to their journalistic integrity, the Margisons made the tough decision to leave the newspaper in October 2009 and create a new product that fits both the Brown County lifestyle and a new media model.

With This Is Brown County, they will continue the tradition of providing news and information that is important to Brown Countians in an exciting digital format.]
