Children's Summer Camp 2011

Discover something old... and something NEW!

The Maxwell Museum is located on the campus of the University of New Mexico, just north of M.L. King Jr. Ave on Redondo Drive. Parking is available in the museum's west parking lot for pick up and drop off.

Drop off time: 8:45 am – 9:00 am
Pick up time: 11:45 am – 12:00 pm

Children are required to wear proper shoes for active programming. Additional items such as hats and sunscreen are needed for outside activities.

What we're all about!

Maxwell Museum's Children's Summer Camp takes children around the world and back in time in just a week! Enjoy a variety of themed educational programs for individual days or register for a full week of adventure!

Themed days are as follows:

- Monday: (July 11)
"Human Origins" looks at fossil evidence of early humans.
- Tuesday: (July 12)
"Archaeology Adventures" will explore the process of archaeology.
- Wednesday: (July 13)
"Native American Traditions" lets you experience indigenous life ways.
- Thursday: (July 14)
"World Music" presents the sights and sounds of world music and instruments.
- Friday: (July 15)
"Global Cultures" takes you on an adventure to another place.
