

Medieval Studies Student Association, UNM
2002 Student Colloquium
Thursday, April 18, 2002
Herzstein Room,
2nd Floor in Zimmerman Library

Program

Session 1: 9:00-9:50
Bilingualism in Anglo-Saxon Literature
Presider: Shannon McCabe

Images of Divine Presence in the Mind in Alfred's Meters of Boethius
Karmen Lenz

Why Aelfric Bothered with Latin and How
Ben Gracy

Session 2: 9:55-10:55
Modern Reworkings of the Medieval Past
Presider: Kim Klimek

Ezra Pound's "Seafarer"
Justin Parks

Sex and the Single Knight: Guinevere, Lancelot, Helayne, and the Conception of Galahad in Charles Williams' Arthurian Poems
Chris Hallada

Beating Students with Sticks: The Modern Heritage of Medieval Pedagogy
Logan Greene

Session 3: 11:05-12:00
Choice and Intent in Middle English Literature
Presider: Cynthia Fillmore

The Narrator as Holy Fool in Chaucer's Tale of Melibee
Nicole Boucher

Meter or Meaning: Synonyms for "man" in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight
Gabriel Gryffyn

Refreshments Will Be Served

Please RSVP By April 17, 2002
To AObermei@unm.edu