

The Department of Political Science will host its Graduation Convocation 2008 on Friday, May 16, at 6:30p.m., in SUB Ballrooms B&C. This convocation ceremony is for undergraduate and graduate students completing their degree programs during the fall, 2007 and spring & summer, 2008 semesters. If you wish to attend the department convocation, (and/or the University-wide commencement ceremony) you must sign up online at <http://graduation.unm.edu>. Students who indicate they will attend the department convocation will receive invitation letters containing convocation-specific details and instructions. Invitation letters will be mailed in late-April. Be sure to sign up if you want to attend!

The University-wide Commencement ceremony will be held on Saturday, May 17, at 9:00 a.m. in the University Arena.
