

TEACHING ASSISTANT SUPPORT

M.A. PROGRAM: Due to the limited number of teaching assistantships, not all students admitted to the M.A. program can be offered an assistantship. We do keep a teaching assistantship waiting list for all qualified students. Students on the waiting list are notified as soon as a position becomes available. Those students in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese who receive a teaching assistantship will (unless the letter of offer stipulates otherwise) normally be assured of two years (4 semesters) of TA support (exclusive of summer teaching), contingent upon academic progress in departmentally approved classes and satisfactory teaching. There will be no extensions to the four-semester limit of assistant support.

PH.D. PROGRAM: Those students in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese who receive a Teaching Assistantship will (unless the letter of offer stipulates otherwise) receive a guarantee of three years (six semesters) of TA support (exclusive of summer teaching), contingent upon academic progress in departmentally-approved classes and satisfactory teaching. A fourth (final) year of assistantship support may be authorized at the discretion of the Graduate Committee if the doctoral student has passed the comprehensive exams by the end of third year of support and has demonstrated satisfactory progress on the dissertation. Those Ph.D. candidates who have exhausted their assistantship support can leave an application with the Department Administrator to be considered for part-time teaching assignments on a contingency basis.

NOTE:

A sine qua non for signing your teaching assistantship contract is proof that you have registered for the required number of approved courses for the semester of the contract.

LANGUAGE TAPE

Candidates seeking a Teaching Assistantship must submit a taped autobiography following departmental guidelines. The tape will be in Spanish or Portuguese, whichever language the candidate is applying to teach. Native speakers of languages other than English must also provide a taped statement in English of equal length. The tape should be 5 – 10 minutes long, and should consist of free, spontaneous narration. Appropriate topics include a brief biographical sketch, accounts of travel or other experiences that bear on graduate study in Spanish and Portuguese, reasons for deciding to pursue a graduate career, specific research interests, and awareness of the programs and resources offered by the Department of Spanish and Portuguese at the University of New Mexico. Applicants should try to use as wide a range of grammatical structures as possible, including past, present, future and hypothetical reference, and an appropriately professional vocabulary. No portion of the recording should be read or memorized, nor should the tape be edited in any way. If the submitted recording does not adequately demonstrate the candidate's linguistic abilities, additional demonstration may be required, such as a supplemental tape, or a telephone or personal interview.
