

UNM Department of Speech & Hearing Sciences
FINANCIAL MATTERS

While we know that your education is one of the best investments you will ever make, the question of how to pay for your education is an immediate concern for everyone.

If you wish to be considered for any type of financial aid administered through this department, you must fill out and return two forms (included below): UNM Standard Scholarship Application and Speech & Hearing Sciences Supplement Application for Scholarships, Assistantships, and other Financial Aid.

The following information is current as of Fall, 2005. Information about loans is not included. Additional information about scholarships, loans and other sources of support can be obtained from the UNM Scholarship Office, Mesa Vista Hall, Room 3019, 505-277-6090, or from the UNM Student Financial Aid Office, Mesa Vita Hall, Room 1030, 505-277-2041.

A SELECTION OF FUNDING SOURCES

The Fred Chreist Sr. Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded based on academic ability. The amount of the scholarship depends on donor funding.

Center for Academic Progress Support (CAPS)

The center, on the third floor of Zimmerman Library, employs tutors in most subject areas. You must have received an A or B in the course for which you will tutor. Contact CAPS at 505-277-4560.

Work Study

This federally subsidized program is awarded based on need, and work study students are hired by many campus units. Application must be made through the UNM Office of Student Financial Aid, 505-277-2041.
