Knowing Our Students

Creating Pathways to Academic Literacy and Beyond: Situating the Personal, Professional, and Political

Dr. Guerra will address the values of academic literacy and how these relate to access and success in higher education as well as professional and community settings. His keynote address will center on effective approaches to teaching writing that help students move between their different communities of belonging with authority.

Thank you to our sponsors:

- Department of English Undergraduate Studies Program
- Department of English Graduate Studies
- Department of English Rhetoric and Writing Program
- English Graduate Student Association
- Center for The Advancement of Scholarship in Teaching and Learning
- Department of Spanish
- College of Arts and Sciences
- University College
- Institute of American Indian Research
- Office of Student Affairs

Keynote Speaker Dr. Juan Guerra, Washington State University

Monday, April 25, 2005
9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Student Union Building, Ballroom
Reception following at the Maxwell Museum of Anthropology
For more information or to register visit www.unm.edu/~wac or e-mail barmygil@unm.edu