

Lab 6 Instructions

For this lab, you will create a value by area cartogram using the same alcohol fatality data as the previous lab.

Use the graph paper you were given to first sketch out the shapes and area of each state.

Finally, submit a discussion about the effectiveness of cartograms compared to the other mapping techniques we used in class.

As always, maintain proper balance and layout in your map. The map may be in color or black and white.